

CAMP LINGOCATS

REGISTRATION DUE MAY 13, 2016
$75 per camper, $70 for siblings

Monday, June 6 - Friday, June 10 | 9 AM - 3 PM
University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY

Do you know a rising 6-9th grader who loves language arts? Science? History?

Camp LingoCats is an exciting adventure into the study of language. We will be learning new alphabets, exploring the history of old words, talking about the importance of language in our families and communities, performing experiments, playing games, making t-shirts, going on scavenger hunts, and much more. Come join the University of Kentucky Linguistics Program for a thrilling week of language study!

-
- 9-9:15 Check-In
 - 9:15-9:45 Introduction to daily topic
 - 9:45-10:30 Outdoor Games I
 - 10:30-10:45 Snack break
(*Snacks provided)
 - 10:45-11:45 Crafts, tools, and technologies
 - 11:45-12:15 Team Time
 - 12:15-12:45 Lunch (*Bring from home!)
 - 12:45-1:45 Language Laboratory
 - 1:45-2:15 Outdoor Games II
 - 2:15-2:30 Afternoon snack break
(*Snacks provided)
 - 2:30-3:00 Recap/Check-out

For more information about Camp LingoCats, please contact camp organizers at the following email addresses:

Abbey Thomas, abbey.thomas@uky.edu
Dr. Jennifer Cramer, jennifer.cramer@uky.edu

Sponsored by the Linguistics Program.
linguistics.as.uky.edu/camp-lingocats